

Mrs. Hickman's goal in life is to work diligently to influence and encourage married couples to enjoy a growing, God-healthy life-time marriage and to inspire Singles to be content in whatever state they find themselves.

Mrs. Hickman was saved at the age of 10 on Cooley Street in East Chattanooga, Tennessee. She is the Executive Director of Covenant Keyppers, Inc., a Christian marriage ministry founded by her and her husband, Gary. She and Gary have been married for 33 years. They have one 30 year-old son, Quincy, and one 3- year old grandson.

After working 16 years with the federal government, Mrs. Hickman took early retirement in 1997. Since her retirement, Mrs. Hickman has worked full time in Christian ministry, in particular, marriage ministry and women's ministry.

Mrs. Hickman is a spiritual counselor to both single and married women, a bible teacher and a women's conference and retreat Speaker.

As Director of Covenant Keyppers, Inc., Mrs. Hickman's primary responsibility is to work alongside pastors to assist them in establishing ongoing marriage programs, as well as assist them in training and certifying married couples in their congregations to do marriage ministry.

In addition, Mrs. Hickman and her husband are marriage workshop, retreat, and conference speakers. Mr. and Mrs. Hickman serve as marriage mentors and serve as counselors for pastors and churches throughout the Chattanooga community and the surrounding area.

Mrs. Hickman has a bachelor's degree in Business Management and is currently pursuing her Masters degree in biblical counseling at Psychological Studies Institute.

Mrs. Hickman's goal in life is to work diligently to influence and encourage married couples to enjoy a growing, God-healthy life-time marriage and to inspire Singles to be content in whatever state they find themselves.
