

Susan's passion is to see God's people, particularly women, living doctrinally correct lives that are rooted in the uncompromising Truth of God's Word.

Susan Sledge is the second of five children born in 1954 to Charles and Tommie Sledge (both deceased).

A 30-year veteran educator, Susan lives in the city of her birth, Chattanooga, TN, where she works as a High School Curriculum Facilitator. Susan accepted Christ as her personal Savior while still a youth in junior high school. Her walk with Christ has seen her through marriage and divorce, raising 3 adult children, and loving 3 beautiful grandchildren.

God has blessed Susan to teach and share the power of His Word quite extensively. Her desire is to live a life that reflects His beauty. Her passion is to see God's people, particularly women, living doctrinally correct lives that are rooted in the uncompromising Truth of God's Word. Susan is a member of Silverdale Baptist Church where she sings in the choir and serves on the Adoption Advocacy Board.
