

CBI Memories

Greg and Jackie Samuels

From Greg: My fondest memories of Cedine revolve around my time as a student there in the 1970s at Cedine Bible Institute. My primary motivation for attending CBI was to study the Word of God. Under the guidance of the esteemed instructors at CBI, I was privileged to receive exceptional sound Biblical instruction. One of the remarkable aspects of CBI was the presence of numerous prominent preachers and teachers from across the nation who graced the institute as guest speakers. Their genuine challenges and insights profoundly impacted my journey with the Lord.

It was here that I met my wife, Jackie, which was a blessing in disguise. She, too, was a Bible Institute student.

From Jackie: Bro. Maxwell taught at the Institute and his wife, Beulah, was the school's nurse. Both had a heart for ministry and were very kind to the students. Brother Neddo taught in the institute and had a wonderful class about evangelism. Learning to reach people for the Lord was a much needed class. Miss Esther Spieth was a wonderful music teacher and English teacher at the Institute. Bro. Phil and Ruth Davis were a blessing to Greg and I. They were both very hospitable. At the time of the institute Bro. Phil Davis was the bookkeeper and his wife (Ruth) worked in the bookstore. Her love for the Lord and a wonderful heart for ministry taught me much about Christianity!!!! Bro. Tom was the dean at the time and he had a wonderful sense of humor!!! Bro. Tom also taught many classes as well.

Miss. Esther Spieth was a wonderful music teacher and English teacher at the Institute. Her love for the Lord and a wonderful heart for ministry taught me much about Christianity!!!!

If it wasn't for Bro. Dwight starting the Institute, my husband and I wouldn't have met. We will be always grateful for that. Cedine Bible Institute helped start our spiritual journey!!!!

May Cedine continue to reach more for Christ!!!!
